

Great Books is an elective course offered to 7th graders. The Junior Great Books program is proven to help students develop essential literacy skills - reading carefully, thinking critically, listening intently, and speaking and writing persuasively.

To learn more about the
Junior Great Books
program, go to www.greatbooks.org